Neck strain simulator for the HTC Vive.

Stand in the room and look 90 degrees downward to evade the monsters until you are killed in the game or your spine cracks and you are killed in real life.

. A great minimalist game. It is easy to understand how to play the game but puzzles become challenging as you advance in game. You would need a walkthrough to get all hidden treasures.. There is no point in buying CS:GO is this game does it better for much cheaper, the graphics are great, the gameplay is better 10/10 will play non-stop. Regardless of my opinion, don't forget that there is a free demo on the Steam store page.

She Remembered Caterpillars* certainly has beautiful artwork, tight puzzle mechanics, and enough content to merit the small asking price. I just didn't fall in love with it. Deb did, which is why we bought it. So I guess you have +1 and -1 coming from our camp. It's a rub.

Again, try the demo.

Pros:

- +Beautiful artwork
- +Tight puzzle rules and execution

Cons:

- I don't like the flat backgrounds mixed with (what appears to be) animated/3D caterpillars
- Yes, the puzzles are difficult, but I just didn't feel compelled by the whole thing
- I am horribly color blind, and I think the whole mix of bright and sharp colors can be a bit hard on my eyes (maybe it's not a color blind thing, but it's worth mentioning)

What can I say - this one just isn't my jam.. Benig honest, I bought this because the title had "Fractal" and I thought the game might have some personality with the subtitle "Make Blooms Not War". No, it turns out it's just a very basic puzzle-ish game. Not very satisfying, no fractals, nothing really exciting or challenging to be found here.. Does not work with Magix Music Maker 2017 Premium DAW. Really wish it did. Infact it completely cripples Magix to the point of having to reinstall after trying to use it.

It's a killer tool that makes creating beats super easy. From using it for only a few hours, It's helped me to understand percussive layering ALOT. I can export the beats I make in L.R. as an audio file then import them back into the Magix DAW. The Liquid Rhythm app itself has been proven to be buggy.

Go to the liquid rhythm website and check if your DAW is supported, they do natively work with and support a bunch of DAW's.

Decent puzzle game, provides around 15 minutes of fun and 30 of agony.. So. Very. Cute.. a fun old school fps an even better online MP DMAs I have played 100s of hrs in DM kingpin. Fun, short game.. Bored but it should do.. a nice little RPG in the style of a JRPG. The battles are pretty basic and easy to get a hang of, i think the most effort was put into the story which I find to be interested and the main reason I kept playing.

Personally I never found the game very difficult and some your characters seem a little overpowered. The game is a bout 2-3hrs and can easily be finished in one sitting if you have a spare afternoon.. When I try to open a new window during the game, Steam freezes.. ZIQ is a very challenging runner that will keep you coming back to beat your score. The electronic music is great and will draw you in as the Tron like art pulses to the beat. I think it plays a lot better with a controller than keyboard and mouse, so I'd recommend using one if possible. I tried to rebind my triggers but it didn't seem to work like the other buttons did, later I noticed they already work for switching color and pulling orbs but you won't know that from the keybinds menu. The games scoring is based around pulling orbs while matching your color to a sequence at the top of the screen, you get more points the closer you are to the orb when you grab it. This sounds easy but it's harder than you'd think because you also have to switch your color to avoid traps. If you can finish multiple sequences in a row you'll end up triggering a mario star like deal where you're invincible to traps and can get extra points for blowing them up! The game also has a narrator that talks\u2665\u2665\u2665\u2665\u2665\u2665when you die, which is pretty funny. Once in a while he'll talk about some backstory, but it's mostly just making fun of your deaths. If you like arcade games you should check it out.

Challenging, fun, good music and tight controls. You'll die a ton and get mocked constantly. Use a controller.
